- 1.03 REGISTERED OFFICE & REGISTERED AGENT. Per Section 202 of the Law, the Board agrees that the Corporation’s registered agent for service of process is located in the State of California, as stated in the Articles. The Corporation may change its registered agent by resolution of the Board and filing a statement with the Secretary of State setting forth the change. Pursuant to Sections 213, 1500, and 1601 of the Law, the Board is obligated to maintain and update the corporate records on file with the Corporation’s registered agent.
- 1.04 OTHER OFFICES. The Corporation may have other offices as selected by the Board per Section 207 of the Law.
- 1.05 CORPORATE SEAL. Pursuant to Section 207 of the Law, the Board may adopt a corporate seal with the form and inscription of their choosing. The adoption and use of a corporate seal is not required.
- 1.06 PURPOSE. Pursuant to Sections 202 and 206 of the Law, this Corporation is formed to engage in any lawful business purpose.
- 1.07 ADOPTION OF BYLAWS. Pursuant to Section 211 of the Law, the Board has caused the adoption of these corporate bylaws (“Bylaws”) on behalf of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 2

Board of Directors

2.01 INITIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD. Per Section 200 of the Law, the Board has conducted and completed the initial organizational meeting of the Corporation.

2.02 POWERS AND NUMBERS. Pursuant to Section 300 of the Law, the management of all the Corporation's affairs, property, and interests shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board. Per Section 212 of the Law, the Board shall be comprised of the number of directors listed in the Articles, unless expressly altered by these Bylaws. If the Articles do not list a number of directors, then pursuant to Section 212 of the Law, the Board consists of at least one (1) natural person, and all additional directors must also be natural persons. Directors need not be shareholders or residents of the State of California.

Pursuant to Section 212 of the Law, in the event the Corporation has more than 2 shareholders, then the minimum number of directors must be no less than three (3) directors.

2.03 DIRECTOR LIABILITY. Each director is required, individually and collectively, to act in good faith, with reasonable and prudent care, and in the best interest of the Corporation. If a director acts in accordance with Section 309 of the Law, then they shall be immune from liability arising from official acts on behalf of the Corporation. Directors are presumed to act in compliance with Section 309 of the Law.

Directors who fail to comply with Sections 309 and 500 of the Law shall be personally liable to the Corporation for any improper distributions and as otherwise described in Section 316 of the Law and these Bylaws.

2.04 CLASSES OF DIRECTORS. Consistent Section 301.5 of the Law, and until such time as the Articles or these Bylaws are accordingly amended, the Corporation does not have classes of directors.

2.05 CHANGE OF NUMBER. The number of directors may be changed at any time by amendment of these Bylaws, pursuant to the process outlined in Section 2.02 and Article 10 of these Bylaws. A decrease in number does not have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the event the established number of directors is decreased, the directors shall hold their positions until the next shareholder meeting occurs and new directors are elected and qualified.

2.06 ELECTION & REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Pursuant to Section 301 of the Law, Directors are to be voted on and elected at each annual shareholder meeting for a term of one (1) year. A director shall hold office until their successor is duly elected and qualified at the following annual shareholder meeting, unless a special meeting is expressly called to remove a director and/or fill a vacancy. If a director is elected, but is not yet qualified to hold office, then the previous director shall holdover until such time that the newly elected director is so qualified. Pursuant to Section 303 of the Law, one or more directors may be removed by an affirmative majority vote by the shareholders entitled to vote at any shareholder meeting called expressly for that purpose.

- 2.07 VACANCIES. Per Section 305 of the Law, all vacancies in the Board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, provided that any such director who fills a vacancy is qualified to be a director and shall only hold the office until a new director is elected by the shareholders at the next meeting of the shareholders. Any director who fills a vacancy on the Board shall not be considered unqualified or disqualified solely by virtue of being an interim director. Pursuant to Section 305 of the Law, any director elected by the shareholders to fill a vacancy which results from the removal of a director shall serve the remainder of the annual term of the removed director and until a successor is elected by the shareholders and qualified. The Board may fill a vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors for a term lasting until the next annual election of directors by the shareholders at the annual meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose of electing directors.
- 2.08 REGULAR MEETINGS. Pursuant to Section 307 of the Law, the meetings of the Board or any committee may be held at the Corporation's principal office or at any other place designated by the Board or its committee, including by means of remote communication which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. The annual meeting of the Board will be held without notice immediately after the adjournment of the annual meeting of shareholders.
- 2.09 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Pursuant to Section 307 of the Law, special meetings of the Board may be held at any place and at any time, including by means of remote communication which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time, and may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer, or at least two (2) directors. Any special meeting of the Board must be preceded by at least forty-eight (48) hours' notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the meeting.
- 2.10 ACTION BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING. Pursuant to Section 307 of the Law, any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board, or its committee, may be taken without a meeting, provided all directors or committee members unanimously agree and sign a consent that sets forth the action taken by the Board. The signed consent is to be filed with the minutes of the proceeding.
- 2.11 NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Pursuant to Section 307 of the Law, the regular meetings of the Board shall be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting, provided the meeting of the Board follows the adjournment of the annual shareholder meeting. Notice may be given personally, by facsimile, by mail, or in any other lawful manner, so long as the method for notice comports with Article 8 of these Bylaws. Oral notification is sufficient only if a written record of the notice is included in the Corporation's minute book. Notice is effective at the earliest of:
- (a) Receipt;
 - (b) Delivery to the proper address or telephone number of the director(s) as shown in the Corporation's records; or
 - (c) Five (5) days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if correctly addressed and mailed with first-class postage prepaid.

- 2.12 WAIVER OF NOTICE. Pursuant to Section 307 of the Law, a director waives the notice requirement if that director attends or participates in the meeting, unless a director attends for the express purpose of promptly objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Under Section 307 of the Law, a director may waive notice by a signed writing, delivered to the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes before or after the meeting.
- 2.13 QUORUM. Per Section 307 of the Law, a majority of the entire Board constitutes a quorum, and a quorum is necessary at all meetings to constitute a quorum to transact business.
- 2.14 REGISTERING DISSENT. Pursuant to Section 316, a director who is present at a meeting at which an action on a corporate matter is taken is presumed to have assented to such action, unless the director expressly dissents to the action. A valid dissent must be entered in the meeting's minutes, filed with the meeting's acting Secretary before its adjournment, or forwarded by registered mail to the Corporation's Secretary within twenty-four (24) hours after the meeting's adjournment. These options for dissent do not apply to a director who voted in favor of the action or failed to express such dissent at the meeting.
- 2.15 EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES. As permitted by Section 311 of the Law, the Board may create committees to delegate certain powers to act on behalf of the Board, provided the Board passes a resolution indicating such creation or delegation. Notwithstanding the power to create committees, no committee may issue stock, recommend shareholder actions, nor amend these Bylaws. The Board may delegate to a committee the power to appoint directors to fill vacancies on the Board. All committees must record regular minutes of their meetings and keep the minute book at the corporation's office. The creation or appointment of a committee does not relieve the Board or its members from their standard of care described in Section 2.03 of these Bylaws or in Section 309 of the Law.
- 2.16 COMPENSATION. Pursuant to Sections 310 and 311 of the Law, the Board may adopt a resolution which results in directors being paid a reasonable compensation for their services rendered as directors of the Corporation. Directors may also be paid a fixed sum and expenses, if any, for attendance at each regular or special meeting of such Board. Nothing contained in these Bylaws precludes a director from receiving compensation for serving the Corporation in any other capacity, including any services rendered as an officer or employee. If the Board accordingly passes a resolution, then committee members may be allowed like compensation for attending committee meetings.
- A resolution of the Board that grants compensation to a director may be challenged by a shareholder, provided the shareholder requests a special shareholder meeting specifically addressing the resolution related to director compensation. Any Board resolution that relates to director compensation can be overturned by a majority vote of shareholders.
- 2.17 LOANS. Notwithstanding the language of Section 315 of the Law, the Corporation may not make loans to the directors without the approval of the majority of shareholders entitled to vote.
- 2.18 INDEMNIFICATION. Provided the director complies with the standard of care described in Section 2.03 of these Bylaws and Section 309 of the Law, the Corporation shall indemnify any director made a party to a proceeding, brought or threatened, as a consequence of the director acting in their official capacity. If a director is entitled to indemnification by the Corporation, the director shall be indemnified pursuant to the process outlined in Section 317 of the Law.

Stock

3.01 AUTHORITY TO ISSUE. Subject to Section 400 of the Law and the Articles, the Corporation is authorized to issue any class of stock or securities convertible into stock of any class. Before any stock may be issued, the Board must pass a resolution which authorizes the issuance, sets the minimum consideration for the stock or security (or a formula to determine the minimum consideration), and fairly describes any non-monetary consideration.

3.02 RESTRICTIONS. Stock may only be issued in accordance with the Articles, and through the process described in these Bylaws. Any issuance of stock in excess of the amount described in the Articles must be authorized by the Board and approved by the affirmative vote by a majority of shareholders. Per Sections 417 and 418 of the Law, any restriction on the transferability of stock shall be fully furnished to the shareholder, upon shareholder request, and without any charge to the shareholder. Per Sections 417 and 418 of the Law, any failure to furnish such information to the shareholder or a transferee without actual knowledge of the restriction renders the restriction on stock transferability invalid or unenforceable.

As provided in Section 404 of the Law, no shareholder has a preemptive right to subscribe to any subsequent or additional issuance of stock.

3.03 STOCK CERTIFICATES. Under Section 416 of the Law, shareholders are entitled to stock certificates that certify the shares of the Corporation's stock held by the shareholder. Notwithstanding the shareholders' rights to stock certificates, the Board may authorize the issuance of some or all shares of any class or series of stock without certificates, provided the Board shall provide to a shareholder a written statement that contains the information required to be on stock certificates, per Section 416 of the Law.

As required by Sections 417 and 418 of the Law, each stock certificate must contain on its face:

- (a) The Corporation name and that the Corporation is organized under the laws of this State;
- (b) The name of the shareholder (or person to whom the stock is issued);
- (c) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents; and
- (d) The signature of two officers designated in these Bylaws or by the Board; or
- (e) The Clerk and an officer designated in the Bylaws or by the Board.

For the sake of clarity, in the event that an individual serves multiple roles within the Corporation, that person cannot countersign any document which that person has already signed in their official or individual capacity. If an officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature appears on any stock certificate ceases to be an officer before the certificate is issued to the shareholder, it may be issued by the Corporation and is valid as if the person were an officer on the date of issuance. The certificate may be sealed with the Corporation's seal.

3.04 MUTILATED, LOST, OR DESTROYED CERTIFICATES. Pursuant to Section 419 of the Law, in the instance of any mutilation, loss, or destruction of any stock certificate, another may be issued in its place on proof of such mutilation, loss or destruction. The Board may impose conditions on such issuance and may require the giving of a satisfactory bond or indemnity to the Corporation. The Board may establish other procedures as they deem necessary.

3.05 FRACTIONAL SHARES OR SCRIP. Per Section 407 of the Law, the Corporation may:

- (f) Issue fractions of a share which entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends, and to participate in any of the Corporation's assets if liquidation occurs;
- (g) Arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto;
- (h) Pay the fair market value, in cash, of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such shares are determined; or
- (i) Issue scrip in a form which entitles the holder to receive a certificate for the full share upon surrender of such scrip aggregating a full share.

3.06 TRANSFER. So long as there is no transferability restriction on the stock, as described in Section 3.02 of these Bylaws, the stock of the Corporation is freely transferable. Transfers of stock must be made upon the corporation's stock transfer books. Stock transfer books shall be kept in the manner described in Article 7 of these Bylaws.

Before a new certificate is issued, the old certificate must be surrendered for cancellation. The Board may, by resolution, open a share register in any state of the United States, and may employ an agent or agents to keep such register, and to record transfers or shares therein.

3.07 REGISTERED OWNER. The Corporation shall recognize an individual as the registered owner of a given stock, provided that individual is determined as the shareholder of record by the record date as set out in Section 4.07 of these Bylaws. Shareholders may agree to confer the right to vote or represent their stock to third parties, including trustees, proxies, or fiduciaries. The Board may resolve to adopt a procedure by which a shareholder of the Corporation may certify in writing to the Corporation that all or a portion of the stock registered in the shareholder's name are held for the account of a specified person or persons. The resolution must set forth:

- (a) The classification of shareholder who may certify;
- (b) The purpose or purposes for which the certification may be made;
- (c) The form of certification and information to be contained therein;
- (d) If the certification is with respect to a record date or closing of the stock transfer books, the date within which the certification must be received by the Corporation; and
- (e) Other provisions with respect to the procedure as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Upon receipt of a certification complying with this procedure, the Corporation must treat the persons specified in the certification as the holders of record for the number of shares specified in place of the shareholder making the certification.

3.08 CLASSES OR SERIES OF STOCK. Until such time that the Articles are amended accordingly, the stock of the Corporation is not classified, and is not in series. If the Board decides to classify or reclassify the stock or alter any shareholder rights or restrictions, then the Board shall cause an amendment to its Articles to be filed with the Secretary of State. The amendment must describe the rights and restrictions which are being modified or altered, along with a statement (if any) that the stock has been classified or reclassified. Pursuant to Sections 901 and 902 of the Law, the amendment shall be acknowledged and signed by either a director or an executive officer on behalf of the Board, or an agent authorized to submit filings on the Corporation's behalf.

- 3.09 STOCK OWNED BY ENTITIES. Per Section 703 of the Law, stock in the Corporation held by another corporation may be voted by that other corporation's officer, agent, or proxy chosen by its board of directors, or, in the absence of such determination, by the president of that other corporation. Per Section 702 of the Law, shares of stock in the Corporation held by a fiduciary of the named shareholder may be voted or represented by the fiduciary.

Subject to Section 703 of the Law, the Corporation may vote or represent stock that it holds in itself, provided the Corporation holds such stock in a fiduciary capacity. If the Corporation holds stock in itself in such a fiduciary capacity, then such stock shall be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares of stock at a given time.

ARTICLE 4

Shareholders' Meetings

- 4.01 MEETING PLACE. Per Section 600 of the Law, all shareholder meetings must be held at the Corporation's principal office or other place predetermined by the Board. As permitted by Section 600 of the Law, shareholders may participate in the meeting by means virtual or remote conference, provided the participants can hear each other in real time.
- 4.02 ANNUAL MEETING TIME. The annual shareholder meeting for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business properly before the meeting, must be held each year on _____, at the hour of _____. If that date is a legal holiday, then the meeting must be held on the day following, at the same hour. Pursuant to Section 600 of the Law, failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.
- 4.03 ANNUAL MEETING – ORDER OF BUSINESS. The order of business at the annual shareholder meeting is as follows:
- (a) Calling the meeting to order;
 - (b) Proof of notice of meeting (or filing of waiver);
 - (c) Reading of minutes of last annual meeting;
 - (d) Officer reports;
 - (e) Committee reports;
 - (f) Election of directors;
 - (g) Disclosures to shareholders;
 - (h) Miscellaneous business.

4.04 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Subject to Section 600 of the Law, special shareholder meetings, for any purpose, may be called at any time by the President, the Board, or the Secretary. A special shareholder meeting may also be held upon request if said request is signed, dated, and delivered to the Secretary by the holders of at least one-tenth of all shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

4.05 NOTICE. Pursuant to Section 601 of the Law, the Secretary shall cause notice to be given to each shareholder of record at least ten (10) days, but no more than sixty (60) days, before the shareholders' meeting. Notice shall be by electronic transmission, mailing, or personal delivery, and shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting (including instructions for how to virtually attend and participate). Notice is considered given to a shareholder when it is personally provided to the shareholder, left at the shareholder's residence or usual place of business, mailed to the shareholder's address of record, or by electronic transmission to the shareholder's address or number of record on file with the Corporation. A single notice can be delivered to multiple shareholders sharing the same address, unless the Corporation receives a request from a shareholder that more than a single notice be delivered.

Notice by electronic transmission shall be considered ineffective if the Corporation is unable to deliver two (2) consecutive notices and the individual responsible for sending notices to shareholders is made aware of the delivery failures. A shareholder meeting, and any actions taken by shareholders, shall not be invalidated due to an inadvertent failure to deliver notice.

Per Section 601 of the Law and Section 4.07 of these Bylaws, the notice must include the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, if such date is different than the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting.

4.06 WAIVER OF NOTICE. As stated in Section 601 of the Law, a shareholder who is entitled to notice may waive the notice requirement if they provide a signed written waiver of the required notice, before or after the stated meeting time, or the shareholder is present at the meeting in person or by proxy and fails to object to the holding of the meeting or particular matter at the meeting outside the purpose described in the notice.

4.07 RECORD DATE. Consistent with Section 701 of the Law, at least ten (10) days before each shareholder meeting, a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting must be made and maintained in the books and records of the Corporation. This list must be arranged in alphabetical order and include the address of and number of shares of stock held by each shareholder. This record must be kept on file at the Corporation's principal office for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting. The records must also be kept open for inspection at shareholder meetings.

4.08 CLOSING OF TRANSFER BOOKS AND FIXING RECORD DATE. Subject to Section 701 of the Law, the Board may order the stock transfer books to be closed in order to determine which shareholders are entitled to notice of or to vote at any shareholder meeting, or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend. Instead of closing the stock transfer books, the Board may fix in advance a record date for determination of such shareholders. The record date must not be more than sixty (60) days or less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, adjournment, or payment.

- 4.09 SHAREHOLDER LIABILITY. Consistent with Section 409 of the Law, shareholders are not liable to the Corporation or its creditors, except that in the event the agreed upon price or consideration for the stock has not been fully paid. In the event that a subscription price or consideration for stock has not been fully paid, the following people are not personally liable for the unpaid balance:
- (a) a transferee or assignee who acquires the stock or subscription in good faith and without knowledge or notice of the nonpayment;
 - (b) a person who holds the stock as a fiduciary, although the estate in the hands of the fiduciary is liable for the nonpayment; and
 - (c) a pledgee or other person who holds stock as security.
- 4.10 VOTING RIGHTS. Pursuant to Section 700 of the Law, each outstanding share of stock is entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a shareholder meeting, provided the voted or represented shares are held in compliance with any payment plan, subscription, or stock purchase agreement.
- 4.11 PROXIES. As permitted by Section 600 of the Law, a shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy, signed in writing by the shareholder or the shareholder's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy is valid after eleven (11) months from the date signed, unless the proxy states otherwise. A proxy is revocable by a shareholder at any time, unless the proxy states that it is irrevocable and is coupled with an interest.
- 4.12 QUORUM. As provided in Section 602 of the Law, the presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast a majority of all the outstanding voting stock constitutes a quorum. If a quorum is present at a shareholder meeting, then a majority of all the votes cast at the meeting is sufficient to approve any matter properly brought before the meeting.
- 4.13 ACTION BY SHAREHOLDERS WITHOUT A MEETING. As permitted by Section 603 of the Law, any action which may be taken at any annual or special shareholder meeting may be taken without a meeting if all of the shareholders entitled to vote on the subject consent to the action in writing. Such consent has the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders.

ARTICLE 5

The Corporation may also have one or more Vice-Presidents (one shall serve as Executive Vice-President) and Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board may designate. An elected officer will hold office for one year or until a successor is elected and qualified.
